1. GENERAL.

These regulations outline, in general, the duties of the New Cadet Detail and New Cadets during the period June, July and August of each year. Members of the Detail and New Cadets will be further governed by Regulations, USMA, Regulations, USCC, and pertinent administrative and training memoranda.

2. ORGANIZATION.

Upperclassmen of the two New Cadet Details and New Cadets will be organized into a New Cadet Battalion of six companies numbered and referred to as the "1st New Cadet Company," "2d New Cadet Company," etc.

3. FORMATIONS.

Formations will be prescribed by the Commanding Officer, New Cadet Barracks, USCC. Instructions pertaining to the members of the New Cadet Detail required for supervision of training and other formations will be published in appropriate memoranda.

4. DUTIES OF NEW CADET DETAIL.

a. Cadet Battalion Commander. The Cadet Battalion Commander is responsible for the discipline, morale, administration and training of the Battalion, including:

- (1) Modification and publication of guard orders, CCQ orders, and orders for Division Inspectors.
- (2) Publication of New Cadet Battalion administrative and training memoranda.
- (3) Publication of New Cadet Battalion policies, directives, and orders

b. Cadet Company Commanders. The Cadet Company Commander is responsible for:

- (1) The training of his units.
- (2) Duties prescribed in Regulations, USCC, and in USMA Pamphlet, Specific Duties of Cadets, as applicable.
- (3) Maintenance of standards of appearance of rooms, equipment, and personnel in his company.
- (4) Compliance with pertinent administrative and training memoranda, daily bulletins and other official publications.
- (5) Instruction in and implementation of appropriate portions of Regulations, USCC, Regulations, USMA, Bugle Notes, and The Fourth Class System.

5. CADET IN CHARGE OF QUARTERS.

a. There will be a Cadet in Charge of Quarters detailed daily from each company. Cadets in Charge of Quarters will be appointed from the Second Class noncommissioned officers of each company.

b. The Cadet in Charge of Quarters will:

- (1) Accomplish duties prescribed in Regulations, USCC, as modified herein for New Cadet Barracks.
- (2) Except when absent on duty, remain in Company Orderly Room from return from breakfast until taps.
- (3) Take reports from Division Inspectors at New Cadet taps and physically inspect for members of the Detail at Detail taps. Report absentees to Guard at formations following each taps.
- (4) Inspect Detail rooms after termination of privileges. Telephone report to Guard Room.
- (5) Form sick call after breakfast daily.
- (6) Perform duties pertaining to absentees as prescribed in Paragraph 35.

c. The Cadet in Charge of Quarters will be authorized lights until fifteen (15) minutes after completion of his last scheduled duty.

d. There will be no Assistant to Cadet in Charge of Quarters during New Cadet Barracks.

e. CCQ Guard of Barracks.

(1) During certain periods, Cadet Guards will be provided from members of the Guard Detail and Cadet in Charge of Quarters according to the following schedule:

(a) Breakfast, dinner and supper, daily: One (1) CCQ in each area (North, 51-55 Divisions, Central, South) being utilized by the New Cadet Battalion.

(b) During parades and chapel formations all Cadets in Charge of Quarters will remain in company areas. One (1) member of the Guard will be responsible for each area of barracks.

(2) Cadets will be designated for guard duty as outlined above from a roster kept by Battalion Adjutant. The Cadet Officer of the Day will be furnished a copy of this roster

(3) The Guard of Barracks will extend from assembly until dismissal of the formations taking the New Cadet Battalion away from barracks areas.

(4) Cadets in Charge of Quarters and Guards detailed as above will eat thirty (30) minutes early.

(5) Uniform will be as prescribed for Cadets in Charge of Quarters and Guards.

(6) During periods of security guard, cadets will station themselves in a position to observe all entrances to their designated areas. They will allow no unauthorized persons to enter or cross their areas.

(7) Visitors will be handled as prescribed in Regulations, USCC.

6. DIVISION INSPECTORS.

a. In each division of barracks, a Division Inspector will be appointed from a roster maintained by the Senior Cadet responsible for that division. All members of the New Cadet Detail will be carried on this roster .

b. The Division Inspector will:

- (1) Be present in his division from assembly for Call to Quarters to reveille.
- (2) Maintain order and discipline in his division.
- (3) Inspect New Cadet rooms at New Cadet taps. At this inspection, enter rooms, turn on lights , ascertain that all New Cadets are present and in bed. Do not ask an "All Right" until directed by Cadet Battalion Commander.
- (4) Inspect all Detail rooms at assembly for Call to Quarters. Cadets absent at this inspection must mark absence cards.
- (5) Inspect all Detail rooms between assembly for Call to Quarters and tattoo, at time designated by Cadet Company Commander.
- (6) Report results of taps inspection to Cadet in Charge of Quarters on stoops of barracks.

- (4) From assembly for evening Call to Quarters every night until reveille.

b. A schedule of all calls will be published in an administrative memorandum.

8. LIMITS.

a. Members of the Detail. See Regulations, USCC.

b. New Cadets. In accordance with following map, West Point, New York, current memoranda, and The Fourth Class System.

9. ACCOUNTING FOR ABSENCE

a. New Cadets.

(1) Will sign departures and returns in Company Departure Books when leaving company area individually and out of formations, going to hospital (other than sick call) or taking advantage of any authorized privilege.

(2) Will not place name cards or photographs in absence cards until instructed to account for absence by proper marking of the absence card.

- b. Members of New Cadet Detail. As prescribed in Regulations, USCC.

10. DISCIPLINE.

- a. Members of the Detail.

(1) A daily "Award of Delinquencies" sheet, USMA Form 2-2, will be forwarded to a cadet company commander through message center only when there are reports on members of his company detail. These forms will be retained in the company commander's room and there initialed by cadets whose names appear thereon. The forms will not be posted on bulletin boards or in any manner brought to the attention of the New Cadets.

(2) USMA Forms 2-2 will be submitted to Company Tactical Officers the following duty day by 0730 hours, properly initialed and accompanied by required Explanations of Report and Reconsiderations of Award.

- b. New Cadets.

(1) During the first month of New Cadet Barracks, Tactical Officers will control and award demerits within their individual companies. Notebooks, "Form 1's," or other devices may be used.

(2) At the end of the fourth week, with the approval of the Commanding Officer, New Cadet Barracks, New Cadets may be awarded Punishment Tours on Saturday afternoons and/or loss of privileges for the weekend or part thereof.

(3) Beginning on a date to be announced, approximately one (1) month after entrance, delinquencies of New Cadets will be processed in the normal manner.

11. HAZING.

- a. The following excerpt from Regulations, USMA, is quoted for information and compliance by all concerned.

REGULATIONS, USMA, PARAGRAPH 1038 "HAZING"

1038. HAZING -- a. Under the provisions of the act of Congress approved 19 April 1910 (10 U.S.C. 1163), hazing is defined to consist of any unauthorized assumption of authority by one cadet over another cadet whereby the latter shall or may suffer or be exposed to suffer any cruelty, indignity, humiliation, hardship or oppressions, or the deprivation or abridgment of any right, privilege, or advantage to which he shall be legally entitled.

b. If any cadet is charged with hazing and if, upon investigation, the Superintendent of the Military Academy is convinced that such cadet is in fact guilty of hazing, he may inflict the following punishments:

- (1) Suspension from the Military Academy.
- (2) Dismissal from the Military Academy.

c. Any cadet who is charged with offenses under this paragraph which would involve his dismissal from the Academy shall be granted, upon his written request, a trial by a general court-martial and any cadet dismissed from the Academy for hazing shall not thereafter be eligible for appointment as a commissioned officer in the Army, Air Force, Navy, or Marine Corps until two years after the graduation of the class of which he was a member. (Act of 19 April 1910, 10 U.S.C. 1163).

b. Members of the New Cadet Detail are specifically enjoined to examine all their actions in the spirit and letter of the above while instructing New Cadets.

12. PRIVILEGES.

a. Members of the Detail. Privileges for members of the Detail will be delineated in administrative memoranda.

b. New Cadet "limited privileges" will take effect about one month after start of New Cadet Barracks and will be outlined in administrative memoranda. Also see Section III, CUSTOMS AND TRADITIONS, these regulations.

13. ADMINISTRATIVE MEMORANDA.

Necessary administrative instructions not contained in current publications from this headquarters or USCC, will be published in administrative memoranda.

14. GENERAL.

The current edition of the pamphlet entitled, The Fourth Class System, will be the basis for indoctrination of New Cadets. Modification applicable to New Cadet Barracks will be published by the New Cadet Battalion Commander, with the approval of Commanding Officer, New Cadet Barracks.

15. DINING HALL.

Each New Cadet will receive three full and complete meals a day. Table Commandants are responsible that:

- a. Each New Cadet at his table eats a full and complete meal.
- b. New Cadets are not required to recite Plebe knowledge before they complete the meal.

c. Any New Cadet who has not finished his meal at the command "Rise" will remain and finish his meal, and that a member of the Detail remains with the New Cadets at this time.

d. The meal period is not used for disciplinary purposes other than "on-the-spot corrections" for infractions of dining hall regulations and customs, and of table manners.

16. BARBER SHOP.

All cadets will obtain a haircut once a week.

17. PERSONAL HYGIENE.

New Cadets will be required to report to their Squad Leaders each night prior to tattoo (except on Saturday nights when "limited privileges" are in effect) on health habits and physical condition.

18. MARCHING CADENCE.

a. New Cadet formations going to and returning from instruction will move at the double-time, except when going to and from dismounted drill with arms and manual of arms instruction.

b. New Cadets proceeding individually will double-time only in the areas of barracks and in the dining hall.

c. Double-timing will be discontinued:

- (1) After receiving inoculations until the following morning.
- (2) When suspension is announced by Commanding Officer, New Cadet Barracks, as a result of temperature and/or humidity.
- (3) When carrying bulky clothing and equipment.
- (4) When going up or down stairs.
- (5) When waiting in place to pass through the dining hall door.
- (6) When the dining hall floor is wet.
- (7) When returning to barracks after meals.

19. MILITARY COURTESY.

In addition to normal practices, from date of entrance until the end of New Cadet Barracks training, New Cadets will render the following military courtesies to all members of the New Cadet Detail.

a. Salute out of doors and when reporting to a member of the Detail.

b. Remove caps when encountering them in halls and on stairs of barracks, except when under arms.

20. EXTRA INSTRUCTION.

a. Extra instruction squads may be authorized by the Commanding Officer, New Cadet Barracks, for the purpose of improving New Cadets in drill, manual of arms, and other subjects taught during New Cadet Barracks.

b. The following policies will govern:

- (1) Squads will be formed for instructional purposes only, and not for punishment.

(2) Squads will be kept to a minimum and will be supervised by Detail members competent in the subjects being taught.

(3) New Cadets who can be corrected more effectively by individual instruction will not be included in these squads, but may be given instruction individually during the same time the squads are receiving extra instruction.

(4) The Cadet Company Commander is responsible for the organization and supervision of the extra instruction squad in his company. Extra instruction will be conducted as follows:

(a) Dates and Times: By direction of Commanding Officer, New Cadet Barracks.

(b) Uniform: As announced.

(c) Organization: By company into provisional squads.

(d) Duration: Except during scheduled Commanders Time, not to exceed thirty (30) minutes of instruction per day.

(e) Precedence: Priority over all other company duties.

Instruction will not take precedence over any other formations scheduled by Headquarters, New Cadet Barracks.

21. PRESENCE OF NEW CADETS IN ROOMS OF MEMBERS OF THE NEW CADET DETAIL.

a. General: Members of the New Cadet Detail may order New Cadets under their command or supervision to report to them for inspection, instruction or official business at any time between reveille and tattoo, except when privileges are in effect.

b. When Privileges are in Effect: When privileges are in effect, New Cadets who are authorized privileges will not be required to report to rooms of members of the Detail except for official business. New Cadets who have been denied privileges may be required to report to the rooms of members of their chain of command for instruction or inspection in those areas in which they are delinquent.

c. Time and Duration: Such requirements as these when placed on New Cadets will be scheduled at times that will not interfere with company formations or training. The length of such visits will not exceed a total of thirty minutes per day per New Cadet. The period between 2130 and 2200 hours is specifically excluded from this use.

22. NEW CADET PUNISHMENTS.

a. After the completion of the first four (4) weeks of New Cadet Barracks training, the following punishments may be awarded to New Cadets:

(1) Area tours.

(2) Denial of privileges for the weekend or portion thereof.

b. Area tours will not exceed two (2) tours per man, and will normally be served on Saturday afternoons. This punishment will be awarded only to those New Cadets who are recalcitrant or exhibit an indifferent attitude.

c. Denial of privileges may be imposed for the entire weekend, or for a portion thereof. This punishment will be awarded to those New Cadets who need additional impetus toward work on equipment, learning New Cadet Customs, etc.

d. Unserved punishments will not be carried over from one week to the next.

e. Each week, at a time specified by the Cadet Battalion Commander, each Cadet Company Commander will submit a list of New Cadets to serve punishments, to include reasons therefor, to the Cadet Battalion Commander and forward a copy of the report to the Company Tactical Officer. The Cadet Battalion Commander will consolidate company reports and forward to the Commanding Officer, New Cadet Barracks by 1000 hours on Fridays.

f. Procedures to be followed are as follows:

- (1) Time: As announced.
- (2) Place: As announced.
- (3) Uniform: As announced.
- (4) Formation: Formed by the Cadet in Charge of Quarters and marched to the designated area and turned over to the Cadet Officer of the Guard.
- (5) Supervision: By a Cadet Officer of the Guard assisted by a Member of the Guard in compliance with Cadet Guard Detail instructions.

23. PURCHASE AND RECEIPT OF FOOD.

- a. New Cadets will not be permitted to retain food packages received from outside sources.
- b. New Cadets will be permitted to purchase tobacco and a limited amount of ice cream, candy, etc., once each week. Details and company schedules will be announced.

24. AUTHORIZATION TO SEE VISITORS.

a. Prior to the beginning of New Cadet "limited privileges," New Cadets may be authorized to see visitors at a time involving no conflict with training or other scheduled formations.

(1) Such visits will be limited to a period of thirty (30) minutes, and will be authorized for visits with parents, guardians and close personal adult friends who visit West Point unexpectedly and who have traveled a considerable distance.

(2) Requests to see visitors will be made to the Company Tactical Officer or Officer in Charge through the Cadet Chain of Command.

b. Upon the commencement of "limited privileges," New Cadets may be permitted to visit parents, guardians or close personal adult friends for longer periods of time providing the New Cadet has no conflicting duties.

25. PRIVILEGES.

a. Beginning approximately one (1) month after the initiation of New Cadet Barracks training, New Cadets may be granted "limited privileges". Such privileges will be on an earned basis, after the New Cadet has demonstrated sufficient progress in all phases of training, and they may be suspended or withdrawn in individual cases, with the approval of the Commanding Officer, New Cadet Barracks.

b. "Limited privileges" will include authority to accept invitations to officers' (or civilian instructors') quarters on the post during non-duty hours on Saturdays and Sundays. Such visits must be approved by the Cadet Company Commander to avoid conflict with scheduled formations (punishment squads, etc.).

c. New Cadets may be granted privileges to dine with parents or guardians, or with officers (comparable civilians included) of the post, once during each weekend (Saturday evening or Sunday noon) upon commencement of limited privileges. It is not intended that this privilege be used to permit any one New Cadet, and certain of his classmates, to go on dining permit weekly by reason of parent or friend residing near or at West Point. New Cadets going on dining permit Saturday evening will sign their return in the Company Departure Book by 2100 hours.

d. Upon commencement of limited privileges, New Cadets may attend the Saturday night movies in a company group, or they may escort parents or guardians to the movies. If they are escorting they will sign in by thirty (30) minutes after termination of the movie, or, in case of early departure from the movie, thirty (30) minutes after leaving the theater. They may not escort young ladies.

e. New Cadets may be granted walking privileges by Cadet Company Commanders during release from quarters, when not required for any duty, and when limited privileges are in effect. They may walk anywhere within New Cadet Limits.

f. New Cadets will be permitted to swim in the gymnasium pools between 1430 and 1745 hours on Saturdays and Sundays.

(1) All formations and duties take precedence over this privilege.

(2) New Cadets will be encouraged to take advantage of this privilege as an excellent opportunity to increase their swimming proficiency and general physical conditioning.

(3) New Cadets desiring to take advantage of this privilege will sign their departure and return in their Company Departure Books. They may proceed individually to and from the gymnasium.

(4) Bathing suits and towels will be carried to the gymnasium. Uniform changes will be made in the dressing rooms south of the Varsity Pool. Soap showers will be taken before using the pools.

(5) Those New Cadets classified by the Office of Physical Education as swimmers will use the Varsity Pool. One lifeguard will be present at the pool. Those classified as non-swimmers or beginners will use the Instructional Pool. One lifeguard will be present at this pool. These two pools in the East Gymnasium will be the only ones used.

(6) The Cadet Battalion Adjutant will maintain and publish a roster of Lifeguards.

(7) Lifeguards will report to the gymnasium at 1415 hours on Saturdays and Sundays.

(8) On Sundays a member of the Cadet Guard Detail will unlock the south door of the East Gymnasium, remain to guard the entrance, and allow no unauthorized persons to enter. He will clear the gymnasium and lock the door at the end of the swimming period.

g. New Cadets may visit the Fourth Class Club, Ninninger Hall, as follows:

(1) Saturdays. 1430 - 1745 hours and 1930 - 2100 hours

(2) Sundays. 1330 - 1745 hours

26. NEW CADET TITLES.

a. From the day of entrance until the completion of New Cadet Barracks training, New Cadets will use the title, "New Cadet" when referring to themselves individually or collectively. This title will be used in all official correspondence, on mail, and in conversation.

b. New Cadets will be addressed orally as "Mister" by members of the New Cadet Detail. The term "New Cadet" will be used by members of the Detail in all official correspondence and discussions referring to New Cadets.

34. GENERAL

a. Duties and responsibilities of the Guard Detail will be as prescribed in Guard Regulations, USCC, current memoranda, and as modified below.

b. Composition of the Guard Detail will be as recommended by the Cadet Battalion Commander and approved by Commanding Officer, New Cadet Barracks. Governing factors should be the areas occupied during New Cadet Barracks training, and the organization and size of the New Cadet Battalion.

c. The tour for the detail will be twenty-four (24) hours.

d. Certificates by members of the detail will be accomplished as prescribed in Guard Regulations, USCC, and current memoranda.

35. ABSENTEES.

a. The Guard will take reports of absentees at all formations; from the Cadet Battalion Commander at battalion formations (excluding reveille when reports will be taken directly from Company Commanders), from Company Commanders at company formations, and from First Class marchers of instruction groups.

b. All known absentees will be accounted for or located immediately; if not properly excused, they will be ordered to their duties; cadets not accounted for will be reported to the Officer in Charge. Checks should be made against the List of Authorized Absentees, the Guard Departure Book in the Guard Room, and with the Cadet in Charge of Quarters of the absentee's company prior to reporting a man absent to the Officer-in-Charge. Members of the Guard will not go to classes being instructed to account for an absentee or to seek a cadet. If it is necessary to check for a cadet during instruction, a member of the Guard will obtain permission from the Officer-in-Charge.

c. Upon return from the Hospital, after having gone to Sick Call or a Hospital appointment, cadets will sign their return in the Company Departure Book. The Cadet in Charge of Quarters will receive the Individual Sick Slips of such cadets and will check them to ascertain that they are initialed by the Medical Officer and that the cadets were authorized to be absent from whatever formations they may have missed. Any cadets presenting Sick Slips that do not show this authority will be reported on Form 2-1 as being absent those formations. If authority for additional absence from class or drill is presented on the Individual Sick Slip, the Cadet in Charge of Quarters will add the names of the cadets so excused to all copies of the "List of Authorized Absentees" including that maintained in the Guard Room.

d. At 1030 hours each morning, the Cadet in Charge of Quarters will inspect the Company Departure Book and the completed Individual Sick Slips to see that all cadets have returned from Sick Call. Should there be any cadets who have not returned, he will call the Hospital Emergency Room (Ext. 26211) and ascertain their whereabouts. Should he be unable to account for them, he will report their absence to the Guard and the Company First Sergeant immediately.

e. Upon being notified by the Hospital authorities that a cadet (patient) has been released from the Hospital, the Cadet in Charge of Quarters will be alert to see that the cadet returns directly to the Company. Should the released cadet not return promptly, the Cadet in Charge of Quarters will attempt to ascertain his whereabouts. Should this fail, he will report the absence to the Guard and the Company First Sergeant immediately.

36. BARRACKS GUARD.

Barracks guard will be performed as follows:

- a. During the absence of the Battalion from barracks during meals, the barracks and areas will be guarded by designated Cadets in Charge of Quarters.
- b. During parades and chapel formations members of the Guard will guard all areas. Cadets in Charge of Quarters will guard their respective barracks.
- c. An Officer of the Guard will check this guard during each absence of the Battalion from Barracks.

37. CALLS.

See Regulations, USCC, and Schedule of Calls, New Cadet Barracks.

38. CLASS HALLS.

An Officer of the Guard will insure that the First and Second Class Clubs are open nightly and on Saturday and Sunday afternoons. The Fourth Class Club will be opened as directed by the New Cadet Battalion Commander.

39. GYMNASIUM.

See paragraph 25f(8)

40. DINING HALL GUARD.

The New Cadet Battalion Adjutant will detail Dining Hall Corporals from the New Cadet Detail to go on duty from supper of one day through dinner of the following day. These corporals will perform duties as prescribed in Regulations, USCC, and current memoranda, except that:

- a. They will report to a designated member of the Guard (sergeant or corporal) on the walk in front of Washington Hall at First Call for each meal.
- b. The uniform will be the same as for the New Cadet Detail with the appropriate belt (white or web) and bayonet added.
- c. They will report to the member of the Guard on the walk in front of Washington Hall after all cadets have left the dining hall.

41. FORMATIONS.

- a. Formations will be as prescribed by Headquarters, New Cadet Barracks.
- b. A member of the Guard Detail, in addition to taking reports at assembly, will supervise all formations, observing the conduct of the groups as they go to and return from instruction.

42. GUARD MOUNT.

The Guard Detail will change at 1630 hours daily.

43. LATE LIGHTS.

Authority for late lights will be as prescribed by Commanding Officer, New Cadet Barracks.

44. SICK SLIPS.

At 1000 hours each day, the Officer of the Guard will report to the Office of the Hospital Sergeant Major and secure the Individual Sick Slips of those cadets hospitalized at sick call. He will immediately inform the parent company of the hospitalized cadets and will forward the sick slips to companies through message center.

45. SICK SQUAD.

a. The sick squad will be formed in front of Washington Hall at Sick Call. The Senior Officer of the Guard will command the squad. The Cadet in Charge of Quarters of each company will form and report his company detail and deliver the Individual Sick Slips to the Officer of the Guard. Members of the detail then will be excused from the formation of the sick squad and will proceed individually to the Hospital. After receiving reports, the Senior Officer of the Guard will consolidate the Squad, march it to the Emergency Room at the Hospital, present the Individual Sick Slips in alphabetical order by class to the Noncommissioned Officer in Charge, and return to the Guard Room.

b. On Sundays at 1100 hours, cadets of the Catholic or Jewish Chapel Squads who report on sick call will form at the Guard Room and be marched by the Officer of the Guard to the Hospital. Reports will be taken and lates will be reported.

46. SOLICITORS AND SALESMEN.

No member of the Guard will contact or notify cadets on behalf of agents soliciting any type of commercial business. All commercial agents must have definite appointments with cadets prior to the time they are allowed on the post, and if such an appointment has been made properly, no notifications should be necessary. This applies particularly to the member of the Guard during the time he is on duty in Grant Hall. The member of the Guard will advise all agents appearing at Grant Hall of the foregoing and, further, that Grant Hall cannot be used as a meeting place even though a proper appointment has been made with a cadet.

47. TAPS.

a. The Officer of the Day will take a post in front of the Guard Room after both New Cadet and Detail Taps in time to receive the reports of the Cadets in Charge of Quarters. He will cause them to form in line, in numerical order of companies from right to left, facing the Guard Room. He will then receive the reports and, after transmitting such instructions as he may have for the companies, dismiss the Cadets in Charge of Quarters.

b. A member of the Guard Detail will inspect the New Cadet Barracks area every half hour between New Cadet taps and Detail taps to insure quiet.

c. The Senior Officer of the Day will take both taps reports personally to the Officer in Charge.

d. On nights of general entertainment, after the Cadets in Charge of Quarters have telephoned the results of their final inspection, the Senior Officer of the Day will make a final report to the Officer in Charge.

e. Detail taps will be sounded by a member of the Guard.

48. VISITORS.

a. Visitors will not be allowed in the areas of barracks or the entrances to barracks. Visitors will be directed to Grant Hall when they desire to call for cadets.

b. Notes addressed to cadets left in Grant Hall will be delivered by the Guard to Company Orderly Rooms.

c. A member of the Guard will take a post in Grant Hall when it is open to cadets. When civilians enter the reception rooms unaccompanied by either a cadet or an officer, or who are unknown to the cadet on duty, the latter will stop them and inquire as to the name of the cadet whom they wish to see. If the visitors are not acquainted with a cadet and cannot give his name, the Guard will politely inform them that the room is reserved exclusively for cadets and their guests and is not open to the public.

d. Upperclassmen not assigned to the New Cadet Detail will not be permitted to visit New Cadet Barracks except with the permission of the Officer in Charge. Any upperclassmen not on the New Cadet Detail entering the limits of New Cadet Barracks will be instructed to report to the Officer in Charge immediately or leave the area.

e. For Saturday and Sunday noon meal formations, members of the Guard Detail will be posted to inform visitors that they are not permitted to enter the areas to watch the formation of the New Cadet Companies.
